

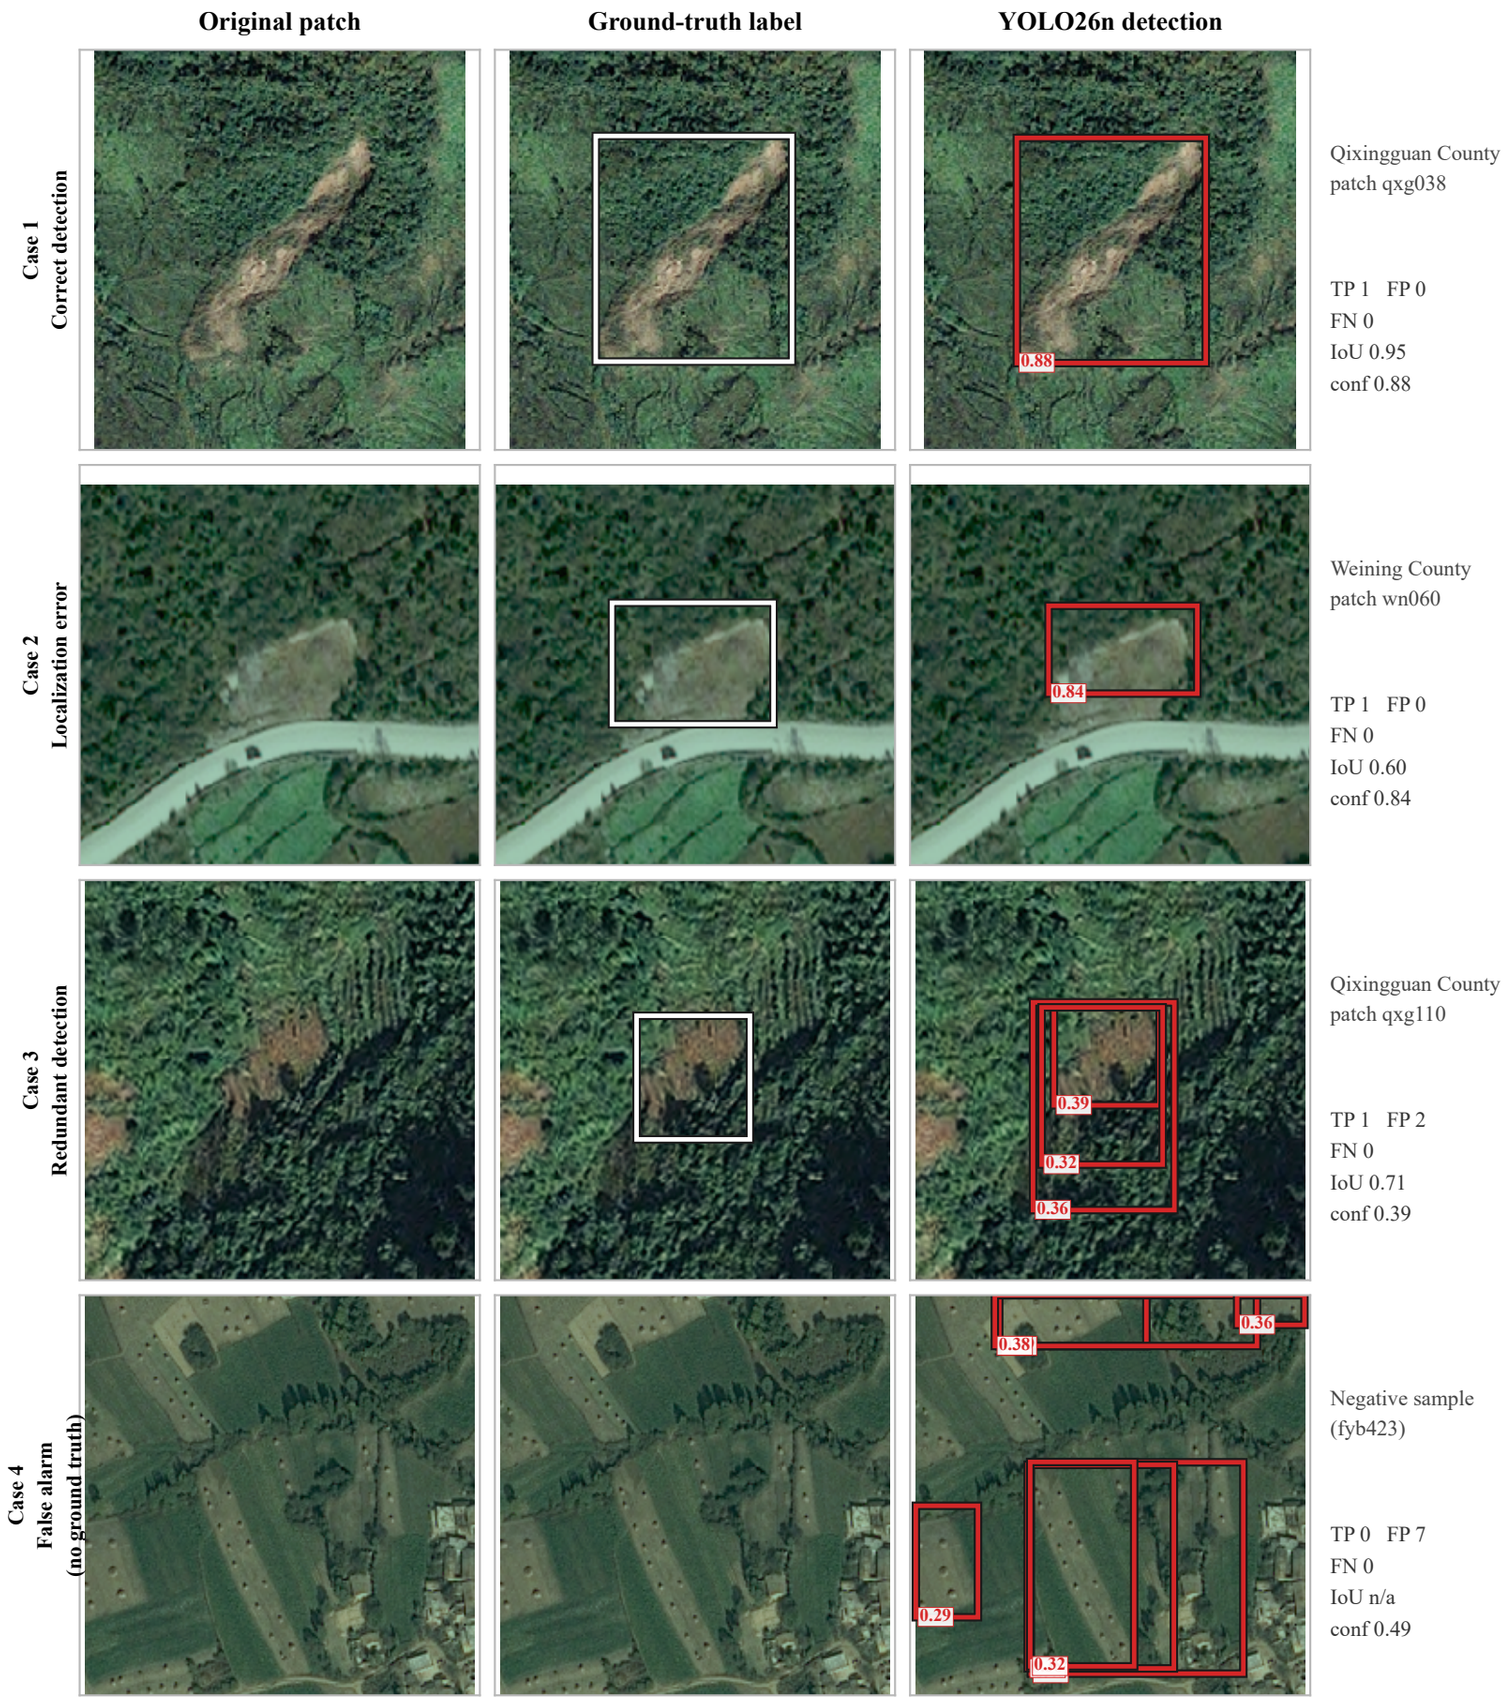

Fig. S1. Qualitative comparison of original patches, ground-truth labels and YOLO26n detections. Bijie landslide benchmark, protocol B (random split), seed 42; boxes shown at confidence ≥ 0.25. Rows 1–3 are positive patches and row 4 is a negative sample without ground truth, so every red box in that row is a false alarm.